

Barbara Cardwell – Board Member

Barbara Cardwell was appointed to the Utility Board in February of 2015. Before her appointment to the Utility Board, she had served as the City Council liaison the majority of time beginning when she was first elected to the City Council in 1984. Barbara received her accounting major from Indiana State, then went back to complete a degree in Education at Indiana University of Kokomo. Barb raised her three children in Tipton, and taught high school special education classes at Tipton High School from 1972 to 2001. Barb is very active in the community and is a member of the Tipton Hospital Auxiliary, Past Vice-President of the Tipton Education Association, member of the Indiana State Retired Teachers Association, member of the ARC and former member of the Noblesville Sheltered Workshop. While serving on the City Council, Barb also served as the City Council Liaison for Cemetery Board, Solid Waste Board, Economic Development Corporation and Planning Commission member.

Barb's experience in City Government and Education as well as her community involvement make Barb an excellent choice as a Utility Board Member.
